

POSTING OF ARTICLES FROM NISC JOURNALS TO INSTITUTIONAL REPOSITORIES

Preprint posting

NISC (Pty) Ltd permits any author of an article published in one of our journals to post a copy of the unreviewed original manuscript submitted to the journal (preprint) to their institutional repository. There is no embargo period on such postings. The following information needs to accompany the article on the website:

This is the unreviewed manuscript of an article originally submitted to [Journal title] and whose final and definitive form has been published in [Journal title] [Year], [Volume] [(Issue)]: [Page nos] © [Year of publication] copyright NISC (Pty) Ltd. The [Journal Title] is available online at: [http://www.informaworld.com/\[JOURNAL ACRONYM\]](http://www.informaworld.com/[JOURNAL ACRONYM])

For example:

This is the unreviewed manuscript of an article originally submitted to Ostrich: Journal of African Ornithology and whose final and definitive form has been published in Ostrich: Journal of African Ornithology 2008, 79(2): 199-204 © 2008 copyright NISC (Pty) Ltd. The Ostrich: Journal of African Ornithology is available online at: <http://www.informaworld.com/TOST>

Postprint posting

NISC (Pty) Ltd permits any author of an article published in one of our journals to submit a copy of their final, accepted peer-reviewed manuscript (postprint) to their institutional repository. We impose a six-month embargo on posting of the postprint, commencing from when the article first appeared online. The following information needs to accompany the article on the website:

This is the accepted, peer-reviewed manuscript of an article whose final and definitive form has been published in [Journal title] [Year], [Volume] [(Issue)]: [Page nos] © [Year of publication] copyright NISC (Pty) Ltd. The [Journal title] is available online at: [http://www.informaworld.com/\[JOURNAL ACRONYM\]](http://www.informaworld.com/[JOURNAL ACRONYM])

For example:

This is the accepted, peer-reviewed manuscript of an article whose final and definitive form has been published in Ostrich: Journal of African Ornithology 2008, 79(2): 199-204 © 2008 copyright NISC (Pty) Ltd. The Ostrich: Journal of African Ornithology is available online at: <http://www.informaworld.com/TOST>

Reprint posting

NOT PERMITTED. As per the publishing agreement that all authors are required to sign with NISC (Pty) Ltd before their article is published, authors may not post a copy of the reprint pdf of their published article to their institutional repository or to any departmental or personal website. Authors may send a copy of their reprint pdf to research colleagues for personal use but not for any commercial purposes and may not distribute such reprints by systematic means such as via e-mail lists or list servers.

Please contact the publisher at journals@nisc.co.za for queries regarding posting or distribution of published articles in special circumstances. Note that the above restrictions do not apply to articles that are published under NISC's Open Access policy (see www.nisc.co.za for details).
